Holidays for bargaining unit employees appear in the Agreement between the University and Local 572.

Employees at the Homewood campus are no longer required to observe Commencement Day as a university holiday. Commencement Day will now be a normal work day everywhere in the University. All employees who were previously eligible for the day off with pay on Commencement day will have an additional floating holiday available, making their holiday schedule equivalent to employees elsewhere in the University.

*As of May 2017, the 2016-2017 University Holiday Calendar has been revised to reflect a change in the 2017 Winter Holiday. The university will no longer observe Friday, December 22, 2017 as a part of the winter holiday. Instead, the university will observe Tuesday, December 26, 2017 as a part of the winter holiday.
