WorkLife Presents

Register online at: https://hrnt.jhu.edu/service/fasapregistration/ or call 443-997-7000.

We can also be reached at: Worklife@jhu.edu

Calendar of Events

Financial

Understanding Long Term Care Insurance for You or Someone You Love - Part 1 & 2
What exactly is Long Term Care Insurance? Is it right for you or a loved one? This 2-part series, presented by Long Term Care Insurance Specialist, Melissa Barnickel, CPA, CLTC, will address the information you need to make an informed decision about this important financial issue, the consequences of not planning for long term care, and the unique long term care solutions available to you. It is recommended that you attend both Parts I and II of the series to get the full benefit of the program.

Part I: Evaluation of the risk for a long term care event and identifying options to pay for care.
May 2, HW, noon - 1 pm
May 9, EB, noon - 1 pm

Part II: Exploration of long term care insurance product features and what they can provide for you.
May 16, HW, noon - 1 pm
May 23, EB, noon - 1 pm

LNYW Walking Tour - Patterson Park & Highlandtown
The Johns Hopkins Live Near Your Work (LNYW) Program, in partnership with the Southeast Community Development Corporation (SEDC), invites you to tour Patterson Park and Highlandtown. Visit featured homes, meet neighborhood residents and get a personal look into the daily life of these vibrant communities. You’ll learn how to qualify for low-interest Healthy Neighborhoods loans, as well as other great home buying incentives, including Johns Hopkins Live Near Your Work grants. Attend this or any of the upcoming walking tour events and you will receive an additional $1,000 toward the down payment/closing costs of a home in the A, B or C target area. (Buyer must settle on or before June 30, 2012.)
June 9, 514 Oldham St., Baltimore, MD 21224 6 pm - 8 pm

Parenting

Promoting Social-Emotional Competence in Children
With increased demands on families and the focus on academic skills in schools, few children are taught the skills that foster social-emotional competence—skills that lead to positive academic outcomes and overall life success. In this introductory talk, parents will learn about the importance of social-emotional competence (or SEC) in children’s behavior and success in school, at home, and in the communities where they grow and learn. In addition, parents will learn how SEC helps protect children from bullying.
May 5, EB, Noon - 1 pm
May 19, HW, Noon - 1 pm

Johns Hopkins Baby Shower
New and expectant parent(s) are invited to attend the Johns Hopkins Baby Shower, hosted by the Office of Work, Life and Engagement as part of your employee benefits package. Having a baby is an exciting life transition that can be challenging at times, and Johns Hopkins offers a variety of services and programs to support you through this change. Topics include... lactation support, choosing quality childcare, postpartum depression, and childhood safety and car seat safety. Meet with a Benefits representative and learn about your employee benefits package. Network with other expectant and new parents at Johns Hopkins.

May 24, EB, 3 pm - 5 pm
Registration required, please contact Meg Stoltzfus at 443-997-7000 or worklife@jhu.edu.

Aging

Aging Adult Services - Fast Facts
In this FastFacts session, Meg Stoltzfus, LifeSpan services manager for the Office of Work, Life and Engagement will provide an overview of eldercare/aging adult services available as part of the employee benefits package for Johns Hopkins University and Johns Hopkins Hospital/Health System employees. You will learn about how the Office of Work, Life and Engagement can assist caregivers through services such as adult care consultations, the Backup Care Program, and referrals to elder care professionals in the community.

May 10, Online, 10 am - 11 am
Register online at: www.hopkinsfastfacts.org.

Complaints of a Dutiful Daughter
Join us for a screening and discussion of an academy award nominated documentary by Deborah Hoffmann. This short film chronicles the various stages of a mother’s Alzheimer’s disease and the evolution of a daughter’s response to the illness. Neither depressing nor medical, Complaints of a Dutiful Daughter, is much more than a story about Alzheimer’s and family care giving. It is ultimately a life-affirming exploration of family relations, aging and change, the meaning of memory, and love.

June 7, EB, noon - 1 pm
June 14, HW, noon - 1 pm

Wellness

Summer Fire Safety
Summer is just around the corner and many families are looking forward to camping trips, family reunions and cookouts, picnics at the beach, and the Fourth of July. But summer also brings fires and injuries due to fireworks and outdoor grills. Join Ben Selassie, MSW, MPH with the Injury Free Coalition for Kids Baltimore, and learn how you can protect yourself and your loved ones from fire related injury and death. You will receive a free smoke detector and other safety items.

June 20, EB, noon - 1pm
June 27, HW, noon - 1 pm

Special Events

Johns Hopkins Picnic
Welcome summer at the Johns Hopkins Picnic with an evening of family fun for Johns Hopkins faculty, staff, employees, students, retirees and their families and friends. Games, entertainment and all-you-can-eat picnic fare are included in the $5 price. Admission is free for children 3 and under. Tickets are available only through advanced purchase. For ticket seller contact information, go to News & Events at: http://hopkinsworklife.org/ or call 443-997-6060.

June 10, Johns Hopkins at Eastern, 5 pm - 8 pm JHU-U-Turn Sale
At the end of every school year, students throw away tons of belongings that are still good: clothes, furniture, electronics and household items. Much of this ends up in our landfills. Students, faculty and staff can give such items a second chance by donating them to the JHU-U-Turn sale. Volunteers are also needed to staff the event. To volunteer, please contact Carrie Bennett at liaison@jhu.edu.

June 11, Ralph S. O’Conner Recreation Center - HW, 8 am

Hopkins Night at Ripken Stadium
Aberdeen Ironbirds vs. Batavia Muckdogs; tickets: $11. Purchase your Hopkins Night at Ripken Stadium tickets by July 12 and you will be automatically entered into a drawing for the chance to throw out the first pitch on game night. To purchase tickets, send a check or money order made payable to “JHU Ironbirds” for the full amount of the cost of the desired number of tickets to: Office of Work, Life and Engagement Johns Hopkins at Eastern, 1101 E. 33rd St., Suite C100 Baltimore, MD 21218. Include your name, your Johns Hopkins affiliation, email address, daytime phone number, and a mailing address. Tickets will be mailed to the address provided.

July 23, Ripken Stadium Aberdeen, 7:05 pm

Staff Recognition Dinner
Staff members celebrating 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45 and greater milestone anniversaries in increments of 5 years of service with the University, whose anniversaries fall between July 11, 2010 and July 10, 2011, inclusive, as well as retirees, are invited to attend.

June 7, Ralph S. O’Connor Recreation Center, 6 pm
Registration required, please contact Amanda Sciukas at ascuak1@jhu.edu or 443-997-0345.

School of Nursing Staff Recognition Reception
Recognition awards for staff members celebrating 5, 10, or 15 year anniversaries between July 11, 2010 and July 10, 2011 with the School of Nursing will be presented.

June 14, Carpenter Room, noon - 2 pm

Homewood Staff Recognition Reception
Recognition awards for staff members celebrating 5, 10, or 15 year anniversaries between July 11, 2010 and July 10, 2011 with Academic & Cultural Centers, Carey Business School, Homewood Student Affairs, Jhpiego, University Press, Krieger School of Arts and Sciences, Peabody, School of Education, The Johns Hopkins Club, University Administration, University Libraries and JHU Museums, and Whiting School of Engineering will be presented.

June 15, Glass Pavilion, Levering Hall, 3 pm - 4:30 pm

Bloomberg School of Public Health Staff Recognition Reception
Recognition awards for staff members celebrating 5, 10, or 15 year anniversaries between July 11, 2010 and July 10, 2011 with the Bloomberg School of Public Health will be presented.

June 21, Feinstone Room, 3:30 pm

School of Medicine Staff Recognition Reception
Recognition awards for staff members celebrating 5, 10, or 15 year anniversaries between July 11, 2010 and July 10, 2011 with the School of Medicine will be presented.

June 27, Turner Concourse, 3 pm - 4:30 pm